This apartment is positioned in the higher part of the historic palace Morganti, situated in the stretch of the road leading to the ward of the village called " Bubbolina", the street where, in the winter one can particularly feel the cold (bubbolava) but still enjoying the splendid view on the valley.

Comfortable and essential, Torreta Morganti has an equipped small kitchen, bathroom and bedroom. It's an intimate and comfortable space, perfect setting for those looking for a genuine and traditional stay, with a hint of romance.
